Description

For sale via secure sale online bidding - terms and conditions apply.

This substantial five-bedroom terraced house with ample size basement presents an exceptional opportunity for investors. Currently operating as a fully occupied, licensed Student House in Multiple Occupation (HMO), the property is generating an income of £2,060 per calendar month. It is offered on a freehold basis and holds council tax band A classification, providing a cost-effective proposition for landlords seeking reliable returns. The accommodation comprises five well-proportioned bedrooms (comprising 4 upstairs bedrooms and one downstairs front room), 2 shared bathrooms, and a communal reception room, offering functional space suited to tenant requirements. This property serves as an established investment with a proven track record of full occupancy, making it a prominent addition to any portfolio that could be used as either a student or professional property.

Situated close to the city centre of Derby and within easy access of the Royal Derby Hospital, the location is ideal for tenants seeking proximity to key amenities and transport links. The area offers a broad range of local services, employment opportunities, and access to higher education institutions, enhancing its appeal for both professionals and students. The property's strategic position supports sustained rental demand, ensuring ongoing attractiveness to future tenants.

Externally there is a small garden to the front and a garden to the rear.
